The Florida Department of Banking and Finance, Division of Banking ("Department"), and Luis R. Roman, former employee of First Sterling Bank of

Osceola County ("First Sterling") agree to the following on the dates last executed below:

1. Consideration. The Department, based on information made available to it, is of the opinion that grounds exist to initiate administrative proceedings against Luis R. Roman, pursuant to Section 655.037, Florida Statutes. This information includes, but is not limited to, the fact that Respondent is presently incarcerated in Federal prison relating to a wire-fraud conviction which occurred in New York and the existence of an alleged signed confession by Respondent concerning his embezzlement activity at First Sterling. It is the desire of Luis R. Roman to cooperate with the Department and to also avoid the expense of administrative litigation. As such, Luis R. Roman stipulates and agrees to the following terms in consideration of the Department's forbearance from initiating such administrative litigation.

2. Jurisdiction. The First Sterling Bank of Osceola County (charter No. 987) is a state-chartered institution which is under the jurisdiction of the Florida Department of Banking and Finance. Luis R. Roman consents to the issuance, by the Department, of the accompanying Final Order of Prohibition (Administrative Proceeding No. 3162-B) making him ineligible for election to any official position in or employment by a financial institution in this State, except with the written consent of the Department, from the effective date of the Department's Final Order. Respondent further agrees to comply with Final Order of Prohibition's ("Order") terms upon issuance and stipulates that the Order complies with applicable requirements of law.

4. Finality. The Order is issued pursuant to Section 655.037, Florida Statutes, and upon its issuance shall be a final administrative order.

5. Effectiveness. The Order is effective upon its issuance by the Department. It is fully enforceable by the Department under the provisions of Section 655.031 and 655.037, Florida Statutes, as well as Chapter 120, Florida Statutes.

6. Waivers. Luis R. Roman, knowingly and voluntarily waives: (1) his right to receipt of an Administrative Complaint and Notice of Rights pursuant to either Section

655.037 or

Chapter 120, Florida Statutes; (2) any right to an administrative hearing provided by Section 655.037 or Chapter 120, Florida Statutes; (3) any requirement that the Department's Final

Order contain separately stated Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law or Notice of Rights; (4) any right to issuance of a Recommended Order by a Hearing Officer from the Division of Administrative Hearings or from the Department; and (5) any and all rights to object to or challenge in any judicial proceeding or forum, including but not limited to, an appeal pursuant to Section 120.68, Florida Statutes, any aspect, provision or requirement concerning the content, issuance, procedure or timeliness of the Department's Final Order.
